

Ferda Donmez-Atbasi

Associate Professor
Department of Economics, Ankara University
E-mail: donmez@politics.ankara.edu.tr

Curriculum vitae

Ferda Dönmez Atbaşı is Associate Professor of Economics at Ankara University, Department of Economics.

She is a graduate of Middle East Technical University (B.S. AND M.S. in Economics and Science and Technology Policy Studies respectively) and University of Utah (PhD in Economics).

Her areas of interest are political economy, feminist economics, welfare economics and development economics.

She is the Head of the International Economics and Development Economics sub-department and she teaches international economics and development economics at undergraduate and graduate levels.

She has been awarded a Newton Mobility Grant by the British Academy for the project “Researching and teaching grassroots economics: A pilot project” (along with Irene Sotiropoulou).

She is a Fellow of the GEM-IWG/GEM-Europe & GEM-IWG/GEM-Turkiye.