The conference will be held online, on 11–13 November 2021.

The aim of the Conference is to present the current situation of the Greek language from a terminological point of view, as well as methods, practices and tools of Terminology science, and their application in the Greek language environment – monolingual and/or interlingual –, with a view to promote terminological research and contribute to the present-day terminological enrichment of the Greek language.

Themes of the Conference:

1 Linguistic–ontological principles of terminology
   Principles and methods of language and logic adopted, formulated and applied in terminology. Terminology as the interface between language and knowledge. Methods, mechanisms and rules of naming resulted from intra-lingual or interlingual study of designations (terms and names) and definitions of concepts. Theoretical, synchronic and/or diachronic examination of terms in monolingual and/or multilingual environment.

2 Didactics and terminology
   Didactics of terminology. Undergraduate and postgraduate lessons and/or seminars in terminology. Learning issues in terminology. Terminological aspects of teaching lessons in specific subject fields. Concepts and terms of didactics.

3 Terminology in specific subject fields – Lexicographical and terminographical studies
   Synchronic and/or diachronic consideration of terminologies and terminology problems in specific subject fields. Systems of terms in specific subject fields in relation to corresponding concept systems. Lexicographical and terminographical studies in specific subject fields.

4 Terminological resources
   Special monolingual or multilingual dictionaries, printed or electronic, local or on line / on the Internet. Term collections, or term bases containing designations, concept definitions and other terminological information. Special corpora offered for research and support of terminological resources. Application of new technologies in terminology practice and in terminology services provision.

5 Standardization of terminology
   Intralingual validation and standardization of terms by determining preferred and admitted terms as valid terms. Internationalization of concepts, and interlingual correspondence, validation and standardization of equivalent terms. Term proposals for validation and standardization. Standardization of special language texts.

6 Terminology and translation

7 Dissemination and use of terms – Terminology policies and regulation
   Ways and means for disseminating special terms and terminologies. Intra-field and inter-field matters of terminology information. Regulatory tools of terminology policy (publications, laws, specifications, standards).

8 Activities of organizations and bodies for terminology
Activities for production, collection, processing, publication and provision of terms and terminology services by national, regional, and/or international bodies (organizations, companies, associations, committees, groups). Terminology events organization.

Languages:
Official languages of the Conference will be Greek and English.

Critical dates:
- Submission of abstracts by 15 April 2021
- Approval of abstracts by 15 May 2021
- Submission of full papers by 15 July 2021

Abstracts and papers:
Participants wishing to present a paper at the Conference are invited to submit an abstract in two electronic copies, as .doc files compatible with MS Office 97-2003. The abstract should be written in one of the official languages of the Conference and should neither be less than 200 words nor exceed 300 words. At the end of the text, relative references should be given excluding author’s own papers; the number of words of the references will not be included in the total word count of the abstract.

The following items must appear on the page of the first copy of the abstract:

b) title of the paper
c) the themes (see above) the paper comes under and
d) name, title/profession, full address, tel. no / fax no, and e-mail address of the author(s).

On the second copy only a), b) and c) should be written.

The two files, corresponding to the two abstract copies, should be sent by e-mail, as attached files, to: valeonti@otenet.gr

Following the examination of the abstracts by the Scientific Committee of the Conference, the authors of the selected papers will receive the necessary information for the preparation of the full texts of their papers.
