

Miltiades Symeonides

Physicist, M.Sc. Applied acoustics

Mouson 21, Mytiline, Lesvos Island
Greece, 81100

E-Mail: msym@env.aegean.gr

Curriculum vitae

He was born in 1960. He is a graduate of Physics (BSc) (Queen Mary College - University of London) and also he has obtained a master's degree (MSc) in Applied Acoustics (Kings College - University of London).

He is a teacher of Physics in secondary education for over a decade. From 1986 until 1993 he has been employed in the National Deaf Institution of Greece as audiophysicist.

During the period 1993-1994 he has successfully attended courses of the Dep. of the Environment of the University of the Aegean.

He has also attended seminars on adult education.