

EAFT–ELETO Symposium

“National Languages and Terminology in Higher Education, Science & Technology”

Athens, Greece, 7 November 2013

Jan Hoel

President, European Association for Terminology (EAFT), senior advisor at The Language Council of Norway, where he inter alia coordinates the work of the Council’s Terminology service.

Mr. Hoel holds an M.Phil. in modern languages (Nordic, English, Spanish) from the University of Oslo.

He has worked as a university lector abroad, in-house translator, text revisor and head of EU translations in the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and is employed at the Language Council as from 2000. In 1992 he worked for the Council of the European Union in Brussels as a lawyer–linguist.

He is a member of the steering group of the Nordic terminology forum Nordterm since 2003 and headed the group in 2005–2007. He is also a member of the Board of the Nordic Association for Lexicology, NFL, where he was president in 2011–2013. In 2009–2011 he headed the external steering group of Standards Norway’s project establishing the freely accesible Internet-based termbank SNORRE.

His main professional interests are terminology and LSP, lexicography and language in society. He is in particular preoccupied with the contemporary impaired situation of national languages in higher education and in society at large.
