

Khalid ANSAR

Researcher at The Language Planning Center, IRCAM, Morocco
IRCAM, Avenue Allal El Fassi, Madinat Al Irfane, Hay Ryad, B. P. 2055, Rabat, Maroc.
E-mail: aansar@ircam.ma

Curriculum vitae

- PhD in Amazigh phonology from the University of Mohammad V, Rabat, Morocco.
Title of the thesis: Sibilants in Berber.
- Teacher at the English department at the University of Ibn Tofail, Kénitra, Morocco (from 2000 till 2007).
- Researcher at the Language Planning Centre in the Royal Institute of Amazigh Culture, Morocco, since 2007.
- Involved in the national project of inserting Amazigh in the educational system, by providing training for teachers, inspectors, students and associations.
- Involved in the project of Planning Amazigh in Morocco.
- Contributed in the accomplishment of a number of terminological works in the domains of education, administration and the media.
- Wrote a number of articles on Amazigh phonology, terminology and language planning.
- Involved in the teaching of various Amazigh subjects at the university level in Morocco.
- Participated in some conferences, as a representative of Morocco, to shed light on the Amazigh language and culture.
- Domains of interest: phonology, terminology, lexicology, lexicography, language planning.